

LORD, Who Shall Dwell Within Your House

Psalm 15

WER WIRD, HERR (L.M.)

Douglas Wilson, 2001

Heinrich Schütz, 1628

1. LORD, who shall dwell with in Your house?
2. He does not back bite with his tongue;
3. This good man's sight con demns the vile;
4. He takes no u su ry at all;

And who as cends Your ho ly hill?
He does no e vil to his friend;
He hon ors those who fear the LORD.
He takes no bribe to hurt the good.

On ly the one who walks in right, And speaks the Slan ders and lies he will not hear, Neigh bors and
When he has sworn to his own hurt He chang es
That man who does these bless ed things Shall stand up - truth friends with in his heart.

are safe with him.
not, his word is good.
right and not be moved.
