

Forth From Thy Courts

Psalm 65

ZION'S PRAISE (9 6. 9 6. D)

Louis Bourgeois, 1543

Harm. Henry Bruinsma, 1954

William Kuipers, 1931

1. Forth from Thy courts, Thy sac - red dwell - ing, In ju - bi - lant ac - cord,
2. A might - y stream of foul trans - gres - sion Pre - vails from day to day;
3. There, in Thy ho - ly hab - i - ta - tion, Thou wilt Thy saints pro - vide
4. From stores on high Thy streams flow ov - er The hard and a - rid land;
5. The year is crowned, O Fount of bless - ing, With gifts to cheer the land;

We hear sweet strains of prais - es swell - ing, O Is - rael's might - y Lord!
But Thou, O God, in great com - pas - sion, Wilt purge my guilt a - way.
With ev - ery bless - ing of sal - va - tion, Till all are sat - is - fied.
The fields are sown with corn and clov - er, Pro - vid - ed by Thy hand;
Thy good - ness fills the earth, ex - press - ing The won - ders of Thy hand.

To God, who hears our im - plor - ra - tion, We come to pay our vow;
Blest is the man whom Thou hast cho - sen, And bring - est nigh to Thee,
By aw - ful deeds, so just and might - y, God saves us from our foe:
The fur - rows, soft - ened by Thy show - ers, Are blest with spring - ing grain.
The hills re - joice; the pas - tures, teem - ing With flocks that skip and spring,

Soon men from ev - ery tribe and na - tion Be - fore our God shall bow.
That in Thy courts, in Thee re - po - sing, His dwell - ing place may be.
To all who walk with Him up - right - ly He will sal - va - tion show.
How great, O God, Thy love and pow - er Through - out Thy vast do - main!
The gold - en grain, in val - leys gleam - ing, All sing to God the King.
